THE EPIPHANY OF THE LORD

First Reading: Isaiah 60: 1-6

Jerusalem is extolled as a place of glory and splendor because the Lord has come to His own city.

Second Reading: Ephesians 3: 2-3a, 5-6

Paul tells the Ephesians that his special mission is to make the Gentiles co-heirs with the Jews in Christ—"members of the same body and sharers of the promise.

Gospel: Matthew 2: 1-12

Herod learns that wise men from the East are searching for the newly born Christ Child. He instructs them to find the child and to report His whereabouts to him. The wise men follow a star to the place where Mary and Jesus are and offer the Child gold, frankincense, and myrrh. They do not return to Herod but follow another route to their own country.

Dear Parishioners,

We are in 2017. Every year when January 1 hits, I usually ask a question; what change am I going to bring in me this year? 2017 is no different. This year too I asked the same question on January 1st, but this year it's not about changing me but about how to take our Parish one step further both spiritually and physically. This is my daily prayer and I always keep my ears open for the promptings of the Holy Spirit. As a Parish family let us be united in prayer and ask for the guidance of the Lord on how to make this come true. Will you join me in praying for this special intention in 2017? God Bless You!

Fr. Joselin
