TWENTY FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Isaiah 22:19-23

This passage refers to the use of authority and indicates the key as the symbol of authority. The words “open” and “shut” refer to the power that will eventually be given to Peter.

Second Reading: Romans 11:33-36

Paul writes ecstatic and praise-filled words about God’s plan for his people. In him, he writes, “all things are.”

Gospel: Matthew 16:13-20

When Jesus asks his disciples, “Who do you say that I am?” Peter exclaims, “You are the Messiah!” Christ then declares that Peter is the “Rock” upon which he will build his Church, promising him the power “to bind” and “to loose.”

A NOTE ON FORMED.ORG

My dear Parishioners,
Few months before I was writing about a Catholic Website called FORMED.ORG in the bulletin. It is a great tool to learn many things about Catholicism. In this website you can find lot of Religious Movies, Movies on Saints, Documentaries on Saints, Many Books, Children Corner, Talks, Importance of Sacraments and so many other things. It's a blessing that we have all these contents in one website. Why can't we make use of it?

The organization that created this website gave it for free for an year without any subscription to all the Parishes in the Archdiocese of New York but this year onwards if any parish wants have access to it, it has to pay $1700 as an annual subscription. But if any parish has 25 and more people got registered from a parish, the Archdiocese will pay for the annual subscription for that parish.

As for our Parish, we just have 16 members registered to formed.org. So to reach the goal we need 9 more members. So I request everyone who has an email id to register and get benefit out of this great Catholic tool.

The registration is easy. Just go to formed.org and click on to page column called Register, enter your email create a password and insert our parish code. Our Parish code is WCFYNZ.

PRAYER TO ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST

O glorious Saint John the Baptist, greatest prophet among those born of woman, although thou were sanctified in your mother's womb and did lead a most innocent life, nevertheless it was your will to retire into the wilderness, there to devote yourself to the practice of austerity and penance; obtain for us of your Lord the grace to be wholly detached, at least in our hearts, from earthly goods, and to practice Christian mortification with interior recollection and with the spirit of holy prayer.

BIBLE STUDY GROUP

We have our Bible class every week on Thursday from 7.00 PM to 8.00 PM. This is the great opportunity to know more about Bible and to be united with Christ. Come and be part of it. All are welcome!

BLUE MASS '2017'

The Blue Mass is named after the blue color or police uniforms, the mass is said to remember the lives of first responders who died in the line of duty, support those who serve, and pray for their continued safety. At the Blue Mass in 2015, Cardinal Wueri said, "This Blue Mass does several things. First of all, it thanks everyone in uniform who stands between us and violence. We're all called to something more than violence. We're called to the message of Jesus, His love, His peace."

Here in our Church of St. Anthony of Padua and St. Thomas Aquinas we have the Blue Mass on Saturday September 9th at 4.00 PM. Bishop Dominick J. Lagonegro will be the Principal Celebrant for the Mass. Dinner will be served at the Church Parish Center after Mass. All are Welcome.
