FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Deuteronomy 18:15-20

Moses explains to the people that a prophet will come from among them, and that they should listen to this prophet's words, for God has told him of this prophet. God also tells Moses that anyone who pretends to speak in his words, or speaks in the name of other gods shall die.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 7:32-35

Paul tells the Corinthians how an unmarried man or woman is able to devote themselves fully to God without concern for the needs of a spouse. Paul explains that God wants to help them promote good and devote themselves more fully to God.

Gospel: Mark 1:21-28

As Jesus was teaching, a man with an unclean spirit came to the synagogue and asked if Jesus had come to destroy them. Jesus ordered the spirit out of the man, who shrieked violently as the spirit departed. The people were amazed at the authority he had over the spirit.

MESSAGE FROM THE ARCHDIOCESE

FLU SEASON

THE FOLLOWING MESSAGE IS BEING SENT TO YOU ON BEHALF OF: THE OFFICE OF THE VICAR GENERAL / CHANCELLOR

With the flu season upon us, priests, deacons, and Eucharistic ministers are reminded of the need to practice good hygiene prior to and after the distribution of Holy Communion. This involves cleansing one's hands before Mass and when visiting people in their homes or in institutions, such as hospitals and nursing homes. It is also recommended that this be done prior to and after the celebration of other sacraments and religious and parish functions. This may be done by washing with warm water and soap or by means of an alcohol-based antibacterial hand sanitizer. It is strongly recommended that hand sanitizers be available in all sacristies for this purpose. Concelebrants who have the flu and are concerned about spreading it can exercise the option of intinction when receiving Holy Communion. Eucharistic ministers should not serve when they are sick. Due to this particularly bad flu season pastors have the option of offering Holy Communion only under one species. Please remind parishioners that they do not have to shake hands at the sign of peace, but may express peace through another gesture or verbal greeting.
